Manuscript editorial services (for journal articles and books):

(1) Anti-plagiarism Check

Our anti-plagiarism team provides anti-plagiarism report.

(2) Language Editing

Our editors recommend appropriate words and phrasing, improve ambiguous semantic statements, repair typos, and correct grammar, spelling, and punctuation. We also replace words and sentences with smoother, clearer, and more formal text as needed.

(3) Expert Scientific Editing

Our experts provide detailed subject-specific text modification.

(4) Translation

Our translators translate your manuscript into English with your intended meaning preserved.

(5) Manuscript Formatting

Our formatting team modifies your page layout, text (e.g. font size, line spacing, indentation, multi-level headings, bold and italic formatting, etc.), title page, image placement, and citations and references in accordance with the guidelines issued by your target journal or book.

(6) Figures & Graphics

Our figures & graphics team generates publication-ready figures from your files, including (a) construction of charts (bar graphs, line charts, scatter plots, etc.), (b) generation of composite figures (c) addition of annotations (text, arrows, lines, etc.), (d) modification of figure dimensions (limited by the resolution of the original figure), and (e) changes to file type, resolution, colour, scale, line thickness, and layout (to improve readability and appearance). In addition the figures & graphics team constructs schemes and various explanatory drawings based on your suggestions.
